

Strengthening competitiveness for the international market

To strengthen international competitiveness in the long term, experienced interim managers support automotive manufacturers and suppliers in successfully overcoming the challenges of industrial transformation.

What the taskforce Practice Group AUTOMOTIVE offers you

Automotive-Expertise Experienced interim managers with strategic foresight, strong implementation skills, and technical understanding	Global & intercultural competence Experience with international value chains; mandates in Eastern Europe, China, India, and the USA	Leadership & Cultural change Promoting personal responsibility, adaptability, innovation, and a culture of learning	Strategy Implementation Portfolio changes, new business areas; partnerships, M&A, carve-out, and PMI projects
Restructuring & Reorganization Comprehensive reorganization and restructuring expertise, cost reductions, delivery capability, site closures, PMO	Supply chain design Optimization of the production network, relocations, closures; supplier management and supply chain resilience	Technological change New technologies, software skills, accelerated product development, automation, and AI	Digital infrastructure Data quality, system integration, cyber security, streamlined system landscape, and efficient systems

taskforce

- is a superior provider of temporary management services specialized in the placement of experienced interim managers and project managers
- offers first-class management resources in the following areas: General Management | Finance & Controlling | Operational Excellence | Program & Project Management | Business Development & Sales | Digitalization | Supply Chain Management | M&A / PMI | Restructuring & Turnaround | Change Management | Sustainability